DRESDEN, Nov. 28.

Yeſterday Morning Lieut. Colonel Schmieleaski, diſpatch'd from Bohemia by the General Count Rutowski, and ſoon after the Major de Bulau, diſpatch'd by Count Maurice of Saxony, arriv'd Poſt at the Palace of Hubertsbourg, to bring the King the agreeable News, that on the Day before betwixt three and four o'Clock in the Morning, the Count Rutowski, with a Detachment of his Majeſty's Troops, and having under his Orders Lieut. General Renard, Major General Weisbach, and the Col. Count de Coſel, attack'd the City of Prague Sword in Hand by St Chales's Gate, and took it by Storm after a bloody Action wherein General Weisbach and ſeveral Officers loſt their Lives: That to favour this Enterprize Count Maurice of Saxony, who had under him the Marquis de Mirepoix and the Counts de la Tour and Gaſſion, made a ſham Attack with 3000 French at the New Gate of the New City, and after a ſhort Reſiſtance took it: And that the General Count Ogilvi, Governor of Prague, was made Priſoner of War, and the Garriſon ſurrendered at Diſcretion; but ſuch good Orders were given, that the City was ſaved from Plunder. The Garriſon conſiſted but of 500 Foot Soldiers and 50 Huſſars, excluſive of the Militia and the Citizens that bore Arms; and the City was taken on the 5th Day after the Trenches were opened.

Vienna, Nov. 12. The Affairs of the Queen of Hungary are not in ſo bad a Condition as they appear'd at firſt. It is true, that this Princeſs has a great many Enemies; but beſides that the Seaſon, which is far ſpent, will ſtop their Progreſs, ſhe has ſtill numerous Armies on Foot, and is aſſembling freſh Troops every Day. If our City has not been beſieg'd, we are entirely obliged to the King of Pruſſia, for it, who might have hinder'd General Neuperg from marching to our Relief.

Tho' the Number of the Queen's Troops is look'd upon as a meer Suppoſition or a Fiction, it is nevertheleſs certain that ſhe has actually above 80,000 Men on Foot in Bohemia, Moravia, and Tyrol, with which Forces we may harraſs the Enemy during the Winter, and next Spring we ſhall receive Succours from more than one Quarter.

The oldeſt Man living does not remember to have ſeen ſuch Exceſſes and Diſorders as have been committed by the Enemy in Lower Auſtria, upon their evacuating that Province in order to march into Bohemia. The Country they paſs'd thro' is totally ruin'd, and Bohemia which is to be the Seat of War, will not be more ſpar'd.

We don't deſpair that the Electors of Bavaria and Saxony may fall out about the Crown, to which both of them have Pretenſions, and if Diſcord ſhould be ſow'd between them, it will probably contribute to reſtore our Queen's Affairs.

Copenhagen, Oct. 30. The March of the Ruſſian Troops thro' the Empire is poſtponed for ſome private Reaſons that the Grand Dutcheſs has imparted to the Queen of Hungary's Miniſter: In the mean Time her Imperial Highneſs has ordered another very large Remittance to be made to Vienna.

LONDON, November 19.

The Rupert, Capt. Ambroſe, of 60 Guns, the Newcaſtle, Capt. Fox, of 50 Guns, and the Port-Mahone of 20 Guns, are cruiſing in the Bay of Biſcay.

November 21. This Morning came Advice, that his Majeſty's Ship the Tartar, the Hon. Capt. Townſhend, Commander, arriv'd Yeſterday Morning at Spithead from South-Carolina.

It is ſaid that Orders are gone from the Admiralty-Office for ſeveral Men of War to go immediately on a Cruiſe, to protect the Trade from the Spaniſh Privateers, 30 of which are mention'd to be now at Sea from only three Ports in the Bay of Biſcay.

November 24. This Day arriv'd a Mail from Lisbon, and 'tis ſaid brings Advice, that the Spaniſh Fleet ſail'd out from the Bay of Cadiz the 15th Inſtant, but knows not where 'tis bound.

Two Spaniſh Prizes, taken by his Majeſty's Ship the Newcaſtle, Capt. Fox, in the Bay of Biſcay, arrived on Saturday at Portſmouth, but as the Poſt was coming out when they were brought in, they could ſend up no Particulars relating to them: There is alſo a third Prize taken by the above Ship which was not arriv'd.

The Warren Galley, Capt. Huddy, bound for the Mediterranean, has taken a French Veſſel laden with Wool for Havre de-Grace.

November 28. Laſt Week the Commiſſioners of the Navy contracted for two Men of War, one of twenty Guns, to be built at Deptford; the other of forty Guns, to be built at Poole, which are order'd to be finiſhed with all Expedition.

The Ship taken by Capt. Huddy, laden with Spaniſh Wool, (ſaid in our laſt to have been a French Veſſel) appears to be a Ship, newly built at Bilboa, and will conſequently with her Cargo be a good Prize.

December 3. We hear that the Cadiz Squadron (one of which of 114 Guns) is ſail'd from that Harbour, and gone as is ſuppos'd towards Barcelona.

Laſt Tueſday came on a Hearing at the Court of Admiralty, relating to the Prize Capt. Huddy took in the Warren Galley, called the Mary of Bilboa; when it was prov'd ſhe was built at Bilboa, and had not been launch'd ſix Weeks: However, the further Hearing was put off ſome Time longer, and it is not doubted but ſhe will be a good Prize, notwithſtanding the ſame Perſon lays claim to her as did to that which was taken by Capt. Page. The Cargo of the Mary is valued at 12,000 l.

We hear from Bruſſels, that the Garriſons in French Flanders are ſo numerous, that an Army of 50,000 Men may be draughted from them in a very ſhort Time.

December 5. Letters both from France and Flanders confirm the Account formerly mentioned of an epidemical Diſtemper, call'd the Black Vomit, ſtill raging moſt furiouſly among the Spaniſh Troops that are landed in Italy. They add further, that it ſweeps off Abundance of them, and baffles the Skill of their ableſt Phyſicians; but 'tis remarkable, that it does not ſeize any of the Women.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is always a great Satisfaction to me to meet you aſſembled in Parliament; and eſpecially at this Time, when the Poſture of Affairs makes your Counſel and Aſſiſtance ſo neceſſary; and when, by Means of the new Elections, I may have an Opportunity of knowing the more immediate Senſe and Diſpoſition of my People in general, from their Repreſentatives, choſen during a Seaſon, which has been attended with great variety of Incidents of the higheſt Conſequence and Expectation; and during the Courſe of the War, in which we are engaged againſt the Crown of Spain? A War, in itſelf juſt and neceſſary, entered into by the repeated Advice of both Houſes of Parliament; and particularly recommended to me be carried on in America, which has been my principal Care. I can therefore make no Doubt, but that you are met together fully ſenſible of our preſent Scituation; and prepared to give me ſuch Advice, as ſhall be moſt conducive to the Honour, and true Intereſt of my Crown and Kingdoms.

You cannot but have obſerved, with an Attention ſuitable to the Occaſion, the impending Dangers that threaten Europe, and more immediately ſuch Parts of the Continent, as ſhall withſtand or reſiſt the formidable Powers, which are confederated for the Subverſion, or Reduction of the Houſe of Auſtria. The Apprehenſion of theſe Things was communicated to the laſt Parliament; when both Houſes expreſſed their great Concern for the Troubles which were broke out in the Auſtrian Dominions; and came to the ſtrongeſt Reſolutions in Favour of the Queen of Hungary; for the Maintenance of the Pragmatic Sanction, and for the Preſervation of the Balance of Power, and the Peace and Liberties of Europe. And had other Powers, that were under the like Engagements with me, anſwered the juſt Expectations they had ſo ſolemnly given, the Support of the Common Cauſe had been attended with leſs Difficulty.

I have, purſuant to the Advice of my Parliament, ever ſince the Death of the late Emperor, exerted myſelf in the Support of the Houſe of Auſtria. I have endeavoured, by the moſt proper and early Applications, to induce other Powers, that were equally engaged with me, and united by Common Intereſt, to concert ſuch Meaſures as ſo important and critical a Conjuncture required; and where an Accommodation ſeemed to me to be neceſſary, I laboured to reconcile thoſe Princes, whoſe Union would have been the moſt effectual Means to prevent the Miſchiefs that have happened; and the beſt Security for the Intereſt and Safety of the Whole.

Although my Endeavours have not hitherto had the deſired Effects; I cannot but ſtill hope, that a juſt Senſe of the common and approaching Danger, will produce a more favourable Turn in the Councils of other Nations. In this Situation, it is incumbent upon Us to put Ourſelves in a Condition to improve all Opportunities that ſhall offer for maintaining the Liberties of Europe; and to aſſiſt and ſupport Our Friends and Allies, at ſuch Times, and in ſuch Manner, as the Exigency and Circumſtances of Affairs ſhall require; and to defeat any Attempts, that ſhall be made againſt Me, and My Dominions, or againſt thoſe whom We are moſt nearly concerned for, and, in Honour and Intereſt, engaged to ſupport and defend.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered Eſtimates to be laid before you, for the Service of the enſuing Year; and I muſt deſire you to grant Me ſuch Supplies as the Circumſtances of Affairs require; which, you may depend upon it, ſhall be duly applied to the Purpoſes for which they ſhall be given.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have, during the Courſe of my Reign, had ſo much Experience of the Duty and Affection of My Parliaments to My Perſon and Government; and of their Zeal for the Good of their Country, and the Support of the Common Cauſe, that I do, with the greateſt Reaſon, rely upon the Continuance of them, in the preſent Conjuncture. There never was a Time in which your Unanimity, Vigour, and Diſpatch were neceſſary to ſo many great Ends as thoſe which are now before you: I will do My Part; let it appear, by your Proceedings and Reſolutions, that you have that juſt and hearty Concern for them, which their Importance requires.
